

stringsirens

The "String Sirens" are available to perform for corporate functions, weddings, parties, launches, balls, fashion shows, to accompany solo artists, in recording sessions, on TV and on the concert platform.

From subtle background music to high-energy feature spots with backing tracks, they are happy to cater to your specific needs and are available throughout Australia.

Combining exceptional talent and professionalism, the "String Sirens" are an all-girl string quartet offering a refreshing alternative to the traditional image of a classical string quartet.

Jemima, Belinda, Leah and Sally have years of vast and varied experience, performing with some of the world's most prestigious ensembles and in endless different contexts. Their repertoire is extensive and their style is extremely versatile. Pop, Classical, Latin, Broadway, Jazz and even Rock is all within their expertise.

The quartet has performed and recorded with such high profile artists as Anthony Callea, Tim Freedman ("The Whitlams"), Guy Sebastian and John Foreman and performed for the Crown Princess Mary of Denmark during her 2005 Australian visit. They have appeared on TV shows such as "Live at the Basement", Channel 7's "Sunrise" and "Australian Idol" (Beatles episode 2004 and Up Close and Personal episode 2005). The quartet appeared in a TV advertisement for AAPT and first Violinist, Jemima, can be seen, playing the Violin solo in the video clip for Anthony Callea's record breaking single "The Prayer". Belinda, Leah and Sally appear in the DVD documentary of Delta Goodrem's first Australian tour.

They recently toured Queensland with Glenn Shorrock, Wendy Matthews and Doug Parkinson as a featured part of the Reminiscing Tour and have just finished a successful season at Sydney's Star City Casino, collaborating with male vocal sensation "Bravo".

Other pop artists members of the quartet have performed with include James Morrison, Rod Stewart, Marcia Hines, KD Lang, Harry Connick Jr, Olivia Newton-John, Tony Bennett, Delta Goodrem, ELO, Alex Lloyd, Dionne Warwick, Katie Noonan, Anthony Warlow, James Blundell, Caroline O'Connor, Kate Ceberano, Rhonda Burchmore, Christine Anu, David Campbell, Troy Casser-Daly, Brian McFadden, Russell Watson, Michael Buble', John Farnham, Patrizio Buanne', Amici Forever, Il Divo, Kanye' West, Kayne Alexander, Ben Harper and the list goes on!
