Latin Passion

Let the sounds of Latin Passion intoxicate you with the glorious tones of baritone and soprano Jose and Tarita Carbo, accompanied by pianist extraordinaire and singer, Mr Glenn Amer, often described as having “the fingers of Liberace and the voice of Mario Lanza.”

Appealing to the most discerning opera buff or a general music lover, Jose, Tarita and Glenn are diverse in their talents - repertoire choices include popular tangos to Italian favourites such as O Sole Mio, Granada, O Mio Babbino Caro, Tonight Tonight from Westside Story and operatic classics such as Largo al Factotum from The Barber of Seville, Musetta's Waltz Song from La Boheme and the Toreador's Song from Carmen.

Australia's leading international baritone Jose Carbo, soprano Tarita Carbo and Glenn Amer will take you to a place you never thought possible with the power of live vocal theatrics and outstanding musicianship. In demand from the leading opera houses of the world, see Jose Carbo before his La Scala debut in Italy in 2009, the mecca of opera world wide.

Described as Australia's answer to the fourth tenor - this high baritone, Jose Carbo, is quite simply “mesmirising - he stole the show” - The Daily Telegraph, Sydney

“Tarita Carbo as Maria won the crowd” Westside Story, Brisbane Festival - The Courier Mail

“Tarita Carbo is a delight to watch as Adina combining acting skills with a first class voice, a soprano with an enormous future” - The Australian

“Tarita's performance was easily the highlight of the evening, she stole the show. What can't this young soprano do?”
- The Courier Mail

“Jose Carbo, dashing - vocally and in his stage presence as the ever capable Figaro - with strong mahogany tones.”
- Sydney Morning Herald

“One could listen to Jose Carbo sing for hours. His voice not only fills the air you breathe but all your senses light up when he touches his most desired notes. His performance is one of great skill, infinite passion and thoroughly entertaining with a light twist of humour.” - Deborah Hutton

“Carbo is a stunning Giovanni, totally in command vocally while injecting Latin Passion to his outrageous behaviour.”
- Stage Diary.com

This is without a doubt Australia's most electrifying classical trio.
